WILSON RE-NOMINATED.

Des Moines, Jan. 13.—Senator Wilson was re-nominated by the republican caucus last evening.

CONSPIRACY.

Vieana, Jan. 13.—The report of a conspiracy against the Bulgarian government has been discovered in a suburb of Sofia. The authorities are said to have seized thousands of proclamations calling upon the populace to take up arms against Prince Ferdinand in favor of Russia.

THE CAPTURED FLAGS.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Chairman Townsend will present in the house today if an opportunity offers, a unanimous report of the military committee in favor of the adoption of Representative Boutwell's resolution concerning the disposition of the captured flags.

BERLIN NEWS.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—The emperor at 10 p.m. last night. He had an interview lasting half an hour with Prince William yesterday.

Advices from San Remo say that the crown prince's throat continues to improve. His voice is good and his health excellent.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 13.—A largely attended conference of Indiana democrats was held here in response to a call issued lately by the Hendricks club of Indiana. Governor Gray was made permanent chairman. The governor said that the democratic armor was never in better order, and after the next convention he thought it would be found that the republican party is a party of the past. This is no time for speech making, and I simply add here that whatever there is of me, and all of me, will be devoted to making democracy triumphant in the coming elections. The resolutions endorse the administration of President Cleveland, welcome his recent message and recommend Governor Gray to the democracy as a candidate for the vice-presidency nomination.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Representative Felton's bill to restrict Chinese immigration was informally discussed by the house committee on foreign affairs.

Representative Morrow called attention to the necessity for some action on the subject, but indications are that the committee will not take it up for some time.

The interstate commerce committee resumed its hearing, all the commissioners were present.

The fisheries commission resumed session at the state department.

Senator Maudsion introduced a bill to increase all invalid pensions to $8 per month. The statement accompanying the bill says that it will increase the pensions of 146,383 persons now carried on the rolls, and will increase the annual pensions payment by $6,753,352.

The adjournment of the senate without an executive session was due to the determination of some of the senators to insist upon the consideration of Lamar's nomination in advance of those of Vilas and Dickinson, and consequent prospect of a somewhat prolonged contest which none were anxious to enter upon so late in the afternoon.
